Pájaros Negros, el heavy metal chileno (Spanish Edition) Patricio Jara

Chile es una de las mejores plazas de Sudamérica para el rock duro. Cada año nos visita una decena de bandas de renombre, y los fanáticos -hombres y mujeres de tres generaciones- con el tiempo somos cada vez más fanáticos. Cualquiera que hoy use esos enormes lentes hipster, en diez años seguro se arrepiente y los esconde; alguien que tenga una polera de Slayer, nunca.

Y somos muchos: si más de cincuenta mil personas llenan el Estadio Nacional para ver a Iron Maiden, queda claro que es un enorme grupo de ciudadanos el que milita en los sonidos extremos y sus variantes. Por eso nadie se atrevería a calificar como disfuncional a la tribu de las poleras negras: lo disfuncional es que te guste toda la música y no pase nada, que no sientas nada.
