....a little show about death and other taboos..... Since her big sister, BBC journalist Kate Peyton, was murdered in Somalia, Rebecca has had rather a strange time. She welcomes us to her world in a passionately political, sharply comical and painfully personal account of life after Kate.

Crafting a moving and often comic tapestry of private moments from a public tragedy, Rebecca tells her own story of a courageous journalist and a loving big sister, whom she misses.

‘painfully honest, brutally humorous and certainly hopeful.... a unique and entertaining piece of theatre’ – Fourth Wall Magazine

‘a visceral true story of the grief, confusion and beauty....Compelling’ – The Independent

‘a piece that once delivered will linger in the audiences’ mind...subtle and unobtrusive...[an] emotional ride’ – A Younger Theatre

‘an artful expression of grief at its most painful’ 4 stars – The Telegraph
