I Giardini Margherita (Amo Bologna) (Italian Edition) Silvia Cuttin - Adriano Agrillo

Il pubblico passeggio Regina Margherita nasce in modo assai particolare, diverso da quanto accadeva nello stesso periodo nella gran parte delle città europee. Là si effettuavano trasformazioni di giardini già esistenti, che da pertinenze di ville private divenivano pubblici. Qui, nel 1862, il Consiglio comunale di Bologna iniziò a discutere una proposta coraggiosa per l'epoca: l'acquisto di una vasta area di terreno allo scopo di farne un giardino pubblico. Quello che sarebbe divenuto, nel 1879, il giardino della città, centro di tanti eventi ma anche della vita delle singole persone. Questa pubblicazione ricostruisce per la prima volta l'intera storia dei Giardini Margherita, non solo descrivendone le caratteristiche storiche, ambientali e paesaggistiche, ma anche, e forse soprattutto, recuperando i piccoli grandi eventi che hanno caratterizzato la vita quotidiana e le trasformazioni del parco. Una narrazione che avviene anche attraverso la viva voce dei tanti protagonisti e in cui molti – e non solo i bolognesi – potranno riconoscere numerosi frammenti della propria vita.
