Inspiring Women Every Day September-October 2014: Luke: The Way for Women & The Names of God Wendy Bray, Rebecca Lowe

In September, Wendy Bray contemplates the encounters that women had with Jesus, as told in the Gospel of Luke. She reflects on these encouraging examples of faithful women and Jesus' profound and revealing responses to such faith. From focusing both on these women and on Jesus we can grasp just how life-changing it is to walk alongside our friend and Saviour. His love and kindness for those marginalised and oppressed is a vital model for us – one we cannot ignore in a world where so many are in need of compassion.

In October, Rebecca Lowe explores how God's nature, personality and character are revealed through the study of His many powerful and profound names. She prompts us to consider some of the definitive qualities of our altogether indescribable God. As we come to know God more and more, our relationship with Him inevitably deepens and strengthens. Rebecca explores how, with this knowledge, we can and should live with confidence, a life that reflects God's image for all those we meet.
