Excerpt from Report of a French Protestant Refugee, in Boston, 1687

This interesting Report, made in the shape of An Avers to certain Questions, by a French Protestant Refugee who intended to settle in New England, was recently extracted from the Manuscript Collections of Antoine Court, preserved in the Library of Geneva, and publised in the Bulletin Historique et Littératre of the Société de l'Histoire du Protestantisme Francais, in February, 1867. It was translated for the Liberal Christian, a religious weekly Paper, published in the City of New York, appearing in November and December last, and has been carefully reviled for the present Edition.

The Bulletin is now in the seventeenth Year of its Existence, and contains Matter of deep Interest to all Protestants, and much that is especially so to the Descendants of the French Protestant Refugees who came hither to escape Persecution.
