Técnica cerámica de la mayólica (Spanish Edition) Susan Mussi-Natalia Galera

Lo que diferencia esta técnica cerámica de otras es que: la arcilla bizcochada se cubre con un esmalte estannífero, opaco y vitrificable que tapa el poro. Luego se decora pintando a mano con óxidos y pigmentos cerámicos y se cuece en el horno a 980°C. Este proceso integra los colores que sobresalen formando otros y permitiendo que los movimientos y la intensidad de las pinceladas puedan apreciarse después de la cocción. Espero que encuentren este libro útil y vengan a visitar nuestra tienda-estudio cuando estén en Barcelona.
