Historic Figures of the Arthurian Era: Authenticating the Enemies and Allies of Britain's Post-Roman King Frank D. Reno

The intention of this in-depth investigation into early medieval sources is to place Arthur within his true historical context and remove him from the 'misconceptions' of fiction and tradition. Reno scrutinises and compares such manuscripts as the De Excidio , Annales Cambriae , Historia Brittonum and the Anglo-Saxon Chronicle to identify places, events and battle-sites from 5th- to 7th-century Britain. Reno's argument is supported by numerous extracts, tables, lists and chronologies.
