Homines Magici (Europäische Hochschulschriften / European University Studies / Publications Universitaires Européennes) (French Edition) Jean-Benoît Clerc

La magie et la sorcellerie antiques ont attiré l'attention de nombreux philologues et historiens. Beaucoup d'entre eux les ont étudiées surtout dans leurs aspects techniques et psychologiques en occultant le fait qu'elles sont aussi des représentations sociales et des événements humains dans la société.

S'inspirant des travaux de l'anthropologie sociale anglo-saxonne, le présent ouvrage tente de répondre aux interrogations suivantes: pourquoi les anciens croyaient-ils en des pouvoirs et des pratiques qui nous paraissent irrationnels et non religieux? A quels besoins humains pratiques et croyances répondaient-elles? Dans quelles circonstances particulières du quotidien humain étaient-elles invoquées? Comment fonctionnaient-elles à l'intérieur du groupe social?
