Maureen Swanson is the scourge of the neighborhood. At age nine, she already has a reputation as a hard slapper, a loud laughter, a liar, and a stay-after-schooler. The other kids call her Stinky. So sometimes when Maureen passes the crumbling (and haunted?) Messerman mansion, she imagines that she is Maureen Messerman—rich, privileged, and powerful. Then she finds a way into the forbidden, boarded-up house. In the hall are portraits of seven young women wearing elaborate gowns and haughty expressions. Maureen has something scathing to say to each one, but then she notices that the figures seem to have shifted in their frames. So she reaches out her finger to touch the paint—just to make sure—and touches . . . silk! These seven daughters of privilege are colder and meaner than Maureen ever thought to be. They are wicked, wicked ladies, and Maureen has something they want. . . .

Ernestine Biggs:

As a college student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or even make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart or real their pastime. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Wicked, Wicked Ladies in the Haunted House can make you experience more interested to read.
