Follow Chigo; her mother, Komochi; and their teacher, Marti; as they are amazed, entertained, and inspired while learning violin basics. Who are these strange, temperamental, and colorful helpers? Anything can happen (and does!) when the "Saints of Sound" ask the animals of the world to help human children. While learning Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star, we discover that it's easier to learn while having a good time. With lots of happy practice, Chigo learns beautiful body balance and beautiful tone. Could it be that having animal teaching assistants is a good idea? Who knew that learning the violin basics could be so much fun?
