Edward Gertler

A canoeist's and kayaker's guide to exploring the free-flowing and floatable streams in Maryland and Delaware plus the District of Columbia and part of nearby Pennsylvania. The subject states comprise an area that is endowed with a wonderfully rich variety of streams, both big and small, remote and civilized and wild and smooth. Most of these waters have been carefully described within and accompanied with shuttle maps, local color and helpful hints to make your tour a pleasant one. The author has been canoeing since 1962.
